

MBA Women's Event in LONDON

Thursday, 30th November 2017 - from 6.30pm to 9.30pm

Event hosted by Morgan Stanley

20 Bank St, Canary Warf
E14 4AD London - United Kingdom

Maps

PROGRAMME

6.30pm Arrival and registration

7.00pm Welcome and introduction

By David Ketterick, MBA 08D, Executive Director of Morgan Stanley

7.10pm Masterclass entitled: “Surviving and thriving in dual career couples”

By Jennifer Petriglieri, Assistant Professor of Organisational Behaviour, INSEAD

Sigmund Freud described love and work as the “cornerstones of our humanness”. Yet, as anyone who is part of a dual career couple can attest, succeeding at both is hardly straightforward. In this session, Jennifer Petriglieri will share some of the findings from her ongoing research on dual career couples. She will touch on the changing nature of romance and careers, question the myth of the “perfect relationship” and offer some practical insights for those navigating love and work.

8.10pm Presentation of the INSEAD MBA Programme

By Michael Wort, Assistant Director of MBA Recruitment,
MBA Programme, INSEAD

8.30pm Alumnae Panel & Q/A session

9.00pm Networking reception with INSEAD Alumnae

9.30pm Closing

Register for the Women’s Event

INSEAD Celebrates Women – More details here

#INSEADWomen